I like Scotland, but there are lots of things I miss about Egypt - the warm, sunny weather(it's never hot here) and especially the food! Scottish food is OK but Egyptian food is better! For example, for breakfast a lot of Scottish people out porridge. They usually make it with milk, and they sometimes put honey on it, but it tastes pretty yucky! I really miss my favorite Egyptian breakfast, ful medames!

When characters speak in stories, we show it with punctuation called quotation marks:

"Mares are my favorite food," "Don't warry!"

We put quotation marks before and after the sentence.

We use verbs like say, shout, and ask to say who is speaking.

"What do you mean?" saked Monkey.

"I thought you were angry," said Mouse.

Almost 100 years ago there was a very surprising discovery in the small village of Nok in Nigeria, a country in West Africa. Local people found some unusual objects under the ground.

These artifacts were beautiful clay sculptures of human figures. The sculptures were all in the same style: they had unusual triangular eyes and complicated hair atyles. They were usually in a sitting position with their hands on their legs. The quality of the work was incredible.

A team of archaeologists went to the area to find out more. They found many similar sculptures in an area of hundreds of kilometers around Nok. There were also from farming tools. The archaeologists agreed these were from a very advanced culture from around 500 B.C.E. to 200 C.E. It was a civilization which had the ability to work from and stone to make tools, and which made beautiful art.

- 1 Do you know the name of the animal in the picture?
- 2 Which Egyptian animal does it look like?
- 3 How is it different?
- 4 Where do you think it lives? Why?

Marco Polo was twenty-one when, in 1275, he went into the Gobi Desert for the first time. He was fascinated by the sand dunes which moved with each step the dromedaries made. Some of the dunes were sixty meters tall and twenty meters long, and their shapes were always changing. The wind made them move and roll like huge yellow waves. In fact, the local people called the Gobi Desert "the dry sea" in their language.

كن ماركز يولو في الحالية والعشرين من عمره علمه دهب الي صحراء جوبي لاون مرة عام ١٩٧٥ كان مقنوب بالثيار الرمال التي قلب تتحرك مع قل خطوء الخداد الجمال العربية(وحيدة المدم) - فالت بحص القبلى الرماية بينغ ارتفاعها سابق من وطوبها عشرين متر - وفائت المدلون تتمر دالما جطها الربح تتحرك وتتنجر م مثل موجم، صغراء صفحه في الواق - اطلق السكان المحلون على صحراء جوبي ضم "البحر الجاف" في ينتمه

The dromedaries in the caravan moved slowly up and down the dunes, swaying like big ships over the ocean. They went toward Lop Nur, the last village before the empty wasteland of the desert. Marco knew that after this place, there was nothing for thousands of kilometers - no people, no plants,

It was a mysterious and dangerous place. By day, it was boiling hot, by night, it was freezing cold - sometimes there was snow. They went on silently, but often the wind made strange noises, like voices singing and drums playing far away. There were many strange legends about this desert. People said that travelers who were lost long ago in the desert wandered there still ... كن مثنا غسب رمغيرا عن البير على مديد الدراء المراء عن البير على مديد الدراء المراء عن البير على المدراء الله المدراء المدرا

Before they left Lop Nur, Marco made sure they had enough food and water for the mon and the animals to last for one month. After exactly thirty days of traveling across that frightening, empty land, they mally saw the green line of Noah Oasis on the horizon. They had no water and no food left and the animals were exhausted, but their desert nightmare was over. They were in China!

Today I had an amazing experience ... I went on a felucca on the Nile Riveri A felucca is a traditional Egyptian salling boat. It's made of wood. A tall, serious man called Karim was the captain of the boat. A felucea is dif_ out to sall, but Karim was very strong and had the skills to do it. The trip was amazing. We went slowly down the river in the golden sunshine. The boat had two white sails which moved cently in the warmwind. It was acquiet and peaceful – a levely way to travel.

We stopped to see some incredible things along the way too. I saw the Pyramids of Giza for the first time in my life—they were awasome! The pyramids were huge and the stones were a sort of golden color. The Great Pyramid, the tellect of the three pyramids, is 147 meters high. It was wonderful – encient and mysterious.

in the afternoon, we had a delicious lunch on board the feluces and there was a man playing traditional Egyptian music on an oud. He played beautifully and the music was magical, dreamy, and relaxing. What a day! I had such a wonderful experience!

The Missing King

1.Peter lives in a big palace where his parents are the caretakers. The palace is old and no one lives there now. A lot of the rooms are closed and mysterious, but Peter likes to explore them. They are full of interesting and precious things—old paintings, statues, corpets, furniture.

2 One day, Puter notices something strange about the big painting in the dising room. Usually, this colorful painting shows one of the old kings with a crown on his head and a long scepter in his hand, sitting on his thrane next to the queen. The royal children are near, the king's son, the prince, and the young princess. But today the king's place in the painting is empty—the king lan't therai

3- Peter is surprised and looks carefully at the painting again. He can see crown and scepter, but there's no king. And the scepter is leaning dangerously towards the head of the little young princess! He must go and find the missing king at once.

4-Peter goes through all of the rooms in the paince, looking behind doors and curtains. Finally, he come to the royal bathroom, He hears singing. He knocks on the door, "Come In," says a voice. Through the steam Peter sens the king sitting in the big bath tub, enjoying a hot bath!"Can you pass me the soap please, boy?" he asks. Peter is astonished but he fetches the soap. When the king sees Peter's face, he says to him, "I spend years sitting in that painting, and no one ever comes to wash the dust off me ever! I got so dirty, I simply had to have a bath."

٤ يمر بيبر غير جميع الغرف في القصر - ويبعث خلف ديواب والمسغر - خير - وعمل الى الحمد المحى يسمع خاء فرح بيبر الباب. The king quickly gets out of the eath, and puts his clothes on, "Thank you, my boy," he says."But in future please clean the paintings in the palace! Then I won't need to leave my throne."And he hurries back to the painting to pick up his scepter.

You can use pictures in a story to help you understand new words. You can also look at the words around an unknown word in a text to help you understand it. For example, is there an article (e/an/ the) before the word, or an adjective? If there is, it's a noun. You can then look at the sentences around it and think what the noun could mean in the context.

"العبد من المنتجات التي تستخدمها اليوم لتعنية الشخصية تم استخدامها بأول مرة في مصر القنيسة"

Perfumes

The Ancient Egyptians loved strong periumes. The most popular periume was called kapet. It was expensive because it had a lot of ingredients, some of which were difficult to find. But it also had a few common herbs and spices in it.

Deodorants

Some of the ancient recipes for deodorants are quite strange! One method was to mix an estrich egg with some nuts, the crushed shell of a tortoise, and a little oil, then put this mixture on your body. Another recipe recommends mixing fruit juices with spices like cinnamon and pepper to make a liquid to cover any bad smells.

Toothpasta

To clean their teeth, Ancient Egyptians used a type of toothbrush – a stick with small pieces of papyrus tied to it at one end. The ingredients of their toothpasts were a mint, rock salt, popper, and dried iris flowers. They put this dry powder directly onto their teeth and rubbed it with their toothbrushes.
